Minnesota Health Action Group Annual Employer Benefits Survey opens February 4 to employers across the state

Bloomington, MN (January 30, 2019) — The Minnesota Health Action Group announced today that its 9th annual Employer Benefits Survey will be open to all Minnesota employers beginning February 4.

The Action Group survey is by employers and for employers. It collects data about the issues and benefits that Minnesota employers say matter to them and their employees. It also provides benchmark results that allow employers to compare plans and see what is and isn't working across the state.

Employers who complete the free, confidential survey online receive a report of employee benefits trends, including:

- Health benefit planning and goals
- Medical plan costs and contribution rates
- Local health plan performance
- Prescription drug coverage and costs (with a special focus on specialty drugs)
- Well-being programs and incentives
- Emerging vendors and programs
- Retiree medical benefits
- 2019 Hot Topics

Employers can visit www.actiongroupsurvey.com for more information and to complete the survey between February 4 and March 1. Employers who complete the survey will receive a benchmark report detailing the results in April.
